Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Landis
Box 126
Rector, Arkansas

Dear Folks:

I was thrilled at David's latest accomplishment, the Regent Scholarship to Tulane. I know that you are extremely proud of him and you have every reason to be so.

I am looking forward to being with you during our meeting at Rector. As was the case last year, I will start the meeting on Sunday night, June 11, and continue through the next Sunday, June 18. You might tell the Brethren that you have heard from me and that my plans are set.

I was happy to learn from your letter that David and his wife will be at home during the meeting. It is a joy to be associated with David. Give the Cloptons my regards and be careful on your trip Northwest.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
